Dear Parents, Caregivers & Friends

Thank you to everyone who contributed in some way to make our Quiz Evening last Saturday a great success. A huge thank you also to all people/businesses who sponsored the evening, it is hugely appreciated. We ended up raising over $14,000! Their outdoor table made by Arlo, Monte, Hunter & Sid sold at auction for $2,000!

On Sunday we had five students, Dalby (Under 9s), Sid & Arlo (Under 11s), Leo & Wallace (Under 13s). Well done to the Under 9s & 11s who won their games and also to Dalby who was awarded player of the day!

We are excited to have our annual Highway 50 Cross Country with Argyll, Onga and Sherwood tomorrow. The weather looks like it could bring some showers late in the morning. With this in mind, we are now starting the first race at 9:45am and will push them through quickly. A big thank you to everyone who has or will be helping out in some way. We do need lots of parents to make the day work. Can all parents who can, please meet at Butlers at 8:30am to help set up the food stall, gazebos, BBQ etc.

We are currently having a big push with manners and we are seeing a difference. It would be really beneficial if parents have a big focus at home too.

Next Tuesday-Friday we have Constable Che Lind here at Tikokino teaching the Keeping Ourselves Safe Programme. This is an excellent programme that helps children learn keeping themselves safe in many situations. Please see the attached link in the email and the school's Facebook page if you would like to know more about the programme.

Have a great weekend everyone, stay warm!

Regards,
Hamish.

No pub bought lunch tomorrow, but food stalls are available at Cross Country.
